In Loving Memory

Of

Ayanna Singleton

October 3, 2000 - July 25, 2019

Ayanna, meaning beautiful flower, was known affectionately by many as "YaYa". Her comical yet joyous personality would lighten any room she would walk into. She made a daily statement that she would not let cancer stop her from living her best life. She would often state that she was not afraid of cancer, that cancer should be afraid of her. Our YaYa was so fearless with every week and treatment that would go by, she would take each day with a smile.

FACULTY LIFE

Mister BHS Kolby Furr

"When I think of a person who might be the definition of a generous, kind, and giving soul, I most definitely think of Kolby Furr. Kolby goes above and beyond to help and to do tasks that make other's lives easier and better. Kolby is a problem-solver and a fixer. He is a patcher of quilts. Kolby is an extraordinary young man who is a blessing to everyone that he comes into contact with. The world is a better place because of Kolby Furr." -Amy Coyne

Miss BHS Breann Hayes

"Breann is a gorgeous and natural beauty. The beauty of Breann runs deep and is much below the surface of what she sees in the mirror every day. The exterior is just the tip of the iceerg. She is a thinker with great wit and charm and an amazing sense of humor. Breann is an example of what young and strong women should be and is a true and sincere blessing to our school community.' - Amy Coyne

Junior

Karime Alonso

Being honest, I did not expect to get picked as a class favorite. I guess I got picked because I am Mexican and that makes me known in our class. ;) Now seriously speaking, I think I got picked because I try to be nice to everyone and I'm also known for being really smart.

Sophia Hernandez

I believe that my personal trait that I withhold that has prompted me for the title of a Junior Class Favorite would have to be my welcoming spirit. I make it a point to treat my peers with respect and kindness, making sure that everyone I come in to contact with I move it cares and love them!

Sophomore

Fisher DeCamp

I'm blessed to be voted by my peers, the Fabulous Class of 2022. It's an honor to be chosen as class favorite. I would contribute this acknowledgement to my loyalty, integrity, empathy, and leadership. But with all this said, we all know its due to my good looks and charisma.

Ava Maddox

I was very surprised to be picked as sophomore class favorite. The only train that I can think of is that my name, Ava, is very easy to remember and takes very little effort to write down or circle. I also think that my wonderful singing voice I bless my classmates with everyday help me get this title.

Chase McColley

I think I was elected because of my friendliness in and outside the classroom and my sense of humor. Thank you to everyone who voted for me as underclassman favorite.

Avery Saucier

I am really happy and thankful that my peers decided to pick me for class favorite and I try to treat them the best way I can. I think that is what gave me the result of class favorite by just being the kindest I can be.

The personality trait that got me voted was probably my constitutional given right to speak my mind. Also some other things like comedy, humility, and love for Anime girls.

Ashton Lang

I believe I was chosen for class favorite because I'm kind, friendly, and I come with a great personality. I speak and play with every[illegible] that I will never meet a stranger. Last but not least, everyone knows I have the best waves on campus.

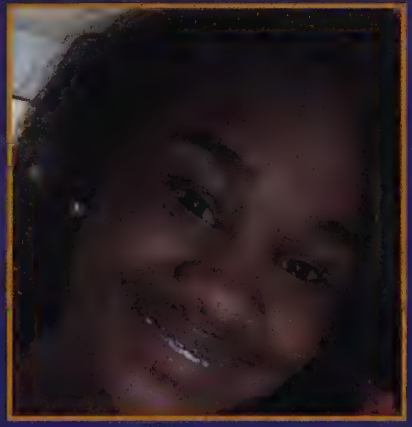
Kayleigh Roddy

I never expected to be picked as freshmen class favorite, however, I am very thankful to have been given the opportunity. One of the only traits that I have that I think gave me this title is my sense of humor. I always find a way to make people laugh.



Erielle Williams

The trait I believe made me win Freshmen class favorite is that I have the ability to get along with everyone.

The following question was asked to the Senior Class members of the BHS Tiger Pride Band: "How has band helped shape your high school journey?" Here's what a few had to say!

"It's given me a purpose and helped me connect with some of the closest people I'll ever meet."

"Band gave me a second family. Since day one I've done everything with my band family and I've loved every single member as a sibling."

"I feel like band really helped me get out there and make friends. If I wasn't in band, I probably wouldn't be who I am today."

"I feel as though without band, I wouldn't be complete. Band is part of my identity and all of the relationships I've built from being in band are the reasons I've gotten this far."

"It's made me feel needed somewhere. It has given me a family full of people that are also passionate about music."

Through this and anything you do in life, may you have the courage to take risks, the strength to be compassionate, and the wisdom to be humble. Remember there are no mistakes, only lessons. Love yourself and your choices. I will be there for you through them all. I love you up to God. Love Mom!

Twenty Years from now you will be more disappointed by the things you didn't do than the things you did do. So throw off the bowlines. Sail away from the safe harbor. Catch the trade winds in your sails. Explore. Dream. Discover.

Our lives would not be the same without you in it. Can't wait to see where you go from here!
We are very proud of you!!!

We've known you were special from the moment we laid eyes on you. Your smile and kind heart have been apparent from the very beginning. Don't ever be afraid to be you. Be your own person, do not follow the crowd. Be the horse of a different color and always think outside of the box. Always follow your dreams no matter how unattainable they may seem at times. You will succeed, always remember that. Stand up for what you believe in and speak for those who can't speak for themselves. You are beautiful, you are smart, and you are one of a kind. Dream big my sweet chick because you can do it all. We are excited to see what the future holds for you.

Love, Mom and Dad

As you finish your senior year I can't help but think all the way back to your first day of your first year. I held your hand as you walked to class. I let go and watched as you looked back. I assured you I'd be waiting when you got out. As you walked away, I began to pout. I waited all day to pick you up. I couldn't wait to hear how your day was. You have grown and changed so much since that first day. I am so thankful that I have been blessed to watch you every step of the way. I may no longer be holding your hand, but by your side, I will forever stand. I cannot put into words how proud of you I am. You have grown into such an amazing young man. I'll be there proudly watching as you walk across the field, wondering what the next chapter of your life will reveal.

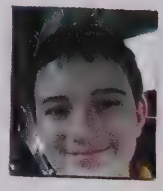
Love Always, Mom

I am so happy to have you as my big brother. I am proud of you. I love you so much!

Love, Karleigh

I love you Paran! I am proud of you. Love, Graycie

It was My 2008, you had just finished KINDERGARTEN...Kindergarten can you believe that...You were this little blonde haired baby with no front teeth (one of the cutest smiles ever). I blinked and here you are a SENIOR. You are now a handsome young man with all your teeth (lol). The little boy who your mom brought to my house to swim and get on the bus years ago is gone. He is now grown into the awesome young man you are today. You have made me nothing but proud of you and thankful to be able to watch you grow these past 12 years. I will continue to be proud and thankful to watch as you grow into adulthood. I love you more than you will ever know, even though you didn't want me to be your mom...Love, Magan



Congratulations Jason on your High School graduation. I wish you the best on your next adventure in the Air Force. You are an amazing young man and I know you will do good.
